

Michael Schwentner, PT, DPT

Michael Schwentner earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Oregon in anatomy and physiology. He was trained as a Physical Therapist Assistant (PTA) at Lane Community College. After gaining experience working as a PTA, he returned to school to earn his Doctorate of Physical Therapy from Hawaii Pacific University. Michael is also certified as a personal trainer. As a Physical Therapist and Certified Trainer, he has interest in orthopedics, sport and spine care with vast experience rehabilitating those with sport and work injuries as well as performance enhancement in a variety of activities.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Human Physiology, University of Oregon 2016

ASFA Certificate: Certified Trainer. American Sports and Fitness 2016

Associates of Applied Science, Physical Therapist Assistant, Lane Community College 2020

Doctor of Physical Therapy, Hawaii Pacific University 2025

Post Graduate Education

International Academy of Orthopedic Medicine

IAOM: Diagnosis and Management of the Thoracic Spine 11/26/2021

IAOM: Differential Diagnosis and Musculoskeletal Management of the Shoulder 03/05-03/06/2022

IAOM: Differential Diagnosis and Musculoskeletal Management of Lumbar Spine and Sacroiliac Joint 09/24-09/25/2022

IAOM: Differential Diagnosis and Musculoskeletal Management of the Cervical Spine 12/10-12/11/2022

Slocum Orthopedics

Slocum Orthopedics: Orthopedic Myths Slocum Foundation & PeaceHealth 12/6/2025

Professional Affiliations

American Physical Therapy Association <http://www.apta.org/>